6. The name or names of the successful tenderers will be notified in due course on the board at the Chief Commandant's office and $\frac{\text{he}}{\text{they}}$ will be required to pay the value of the articles for which his rates have been accepted within a week from the date of acceptance of tender by Government and remove the articles from the premises of the Military Stores as quickly as possible within a fortnight. The articles so purchased will be at the stores at the risk of the purchaser.

7. The several rates tendered will be reported to Government with the Chief Commandant's recommendation for the acceptance of tender which he considers most favourable. The Government reserve to themselves the right of finally accepting or rejecting any tender without assigning any reason therefor. The final decision of Government will be binding on all tenderers until such decision is communicated to them.
